

Lebanon is not Arab.

Lebanon is not Arab. It was as stated as such by the occupation forces and traitors from our (“Christian”) side.

Saudis (Hejaz aside) and Khalijis (Gulf population) as well as Syro-Jordanian tribes (ex Shammar tribes) are Arabs. Actually they are ethnically Muslims, of Arab origin.

We speak a language similar to Arabic (like French and Italian) because Arabic emanated from our language. It is Canaanite, a modern version of proto - Canaanite. Linguistic grammar is not Arabic grammar. Most of our words do not exist in Arabic or existed before Arabic appeared and borrowed them (review Ugaritic and Phoenician dictionaries).

Our genes are not Arabic as well (except for some Muslims). They are Canaanite genes.

Our social habits and customs, our F&B, our dressing... are not Arab.

The Muslim community (I am speaking from a sociological POV) like to be referred to as Arabs, they are free to do that. Of note, they are ethnically Muslims, partly of Canaanite origin, partly of Hejazite origin and partly of Arab origin.

But the country cannot be something if part of its population is not. One example is not enough to prove, and one exception is enough to deny. Lebanon is not Arab. The constitution was twisted to say so in 1989.
